

T&C for Rewardlines Promotion Winter 2011

Entries will be via recommendations for new carers from approved NFA Group carers, from 1st December 2011 until 31st January 2012

There is no limit to the amount of recommendations made by approved NFA Group carers; however each recommendation must be for different households

If two carers recommend the same potential new carer, the carer who contacted their Carer Recruitment Officer first will be entered into the draw only

The draw will take place on week commencing 6th February 2012 and the winner will be informed the following week.

The prize will include delivery to one UK address

Each foster carer will still receive their Rewardlines points as usual during this promotion for recommending potential new carers

The winner will be chosen at random & the decision is final. No correspondence will be entered into.

The competition is not available to any member of staff from NFA or any associated companies

This competition is only available to NFA Group companies that partake in the Rewardlines scheme

A condition of entering the competition is that the results may be published in Linklines or any other NFA publication

All recommendations for new carers must be received by 31st January 2012

Winners will be notified by telephone by their Regional/Registered Manager

The prize is as stated and no cash alternative is available

The NFA reserve the right to change the prize for another prize of equal value.

The NFA accepts no liability for any loss, damage or injury caused by any prizes won.
